

A

Prescription program will be offered

Times Leader Staff

138 words

9 June 2006

The Wilkes-Barre Times Leader (PA)

Main_Run

2

English

(c) Copyright 2006, The Wilkes-Barre Times Leader. All Rights Reserved.

MOOSIC – Those attending the Red Barons-Rochester Wings minor league baseball game at 7 p.m. tomorrow will have an opportunity to learn more about the Together Rx Access program.

Ten pharmaceutical companies formed a coalition to create Together Rx Access, a free prescription savings program to help uninsured Americans and their families gain access to the medicines they need.

Those who are eligible for the free Together Rx Access Card can receive savings on their prescription medications at the pharmacy counter.

As the game sponsor, Together Rx Access representatives will be on site throughout the concourse at to help people determine if they qualify for the program and enroll them.

Additional information about the program is also available at www.togetherrxaccess.com , or by calling (800) 966-0407.